Senate Reunion Brings 41 Members Back to the Capitol

BATON ROUGE, La. – Senate President Page Cortez welcomed 41 former state senators back to the capitol on Monday, April 24 for a reunion luncheon bringing the alumni together for the first time since 2018. The group, honored in the Senate Chamber, enjoyed speaking to current Senators, seeing staff members and catching up with their former colleagues.

“You represent the history, the foundation, the traditions that make the Senate a respected institution of democracy in our state,” said President Cortez. “Your public service represents years, decades, and lifetimes of contributions to the people of this state. We continue your legacy of service to build a better, stronger, brighter future for Louisiana. One where we prosper and thrive. We owe you our gratitude for paving the way,” he said.
